

Moor Pool's Easter Trail

Let's find some eggs! Follow the map on the back and see if you can find these Easter eggs from Moor Pool's past across the Moor Pool Estate. Circle them as you go and fill in the missing words. Then use the first letter of the missing word to fill in and find the secret Easter word.

Moor Pool has a hidden _____ Skittle Alley. It is the only surviving double alley, with a flat and rounded alley side by side.

In 1914 a horticultural show at Moor Pool Hall had a vegetable, fruit, and flowers competition. A Mr J. Ward who lived on Moor Pool _____ won awards for his vases of snap dragons and bunches of Sweet Peas.

On 26th October 1907, Moor Pool was unveiled by Margaret Nettlefold. She cut the first sod (dug into the ground) using a _____.

There are 512 _____ at Moor Pool. When the estate was first built every house included fruit _____ to encourage healthy living.

Easter preparations started early at Moor Pool. Karen White, lived on Moor Pool Avenue and worked at Cadbury's. In December she was making easter _____ for the next year. Pictures of her and her _____ landed in the local newspaper, Birmingham Daily Post, in 1974.

No two houses are the same on the estate. There are six basic building types, made from a mixture of _____ and rough cast, but there are differences in each house. Keep an eye out for all their similarities and differences.

The Moor Pool is an original, natural feature that the estate was built around. The pool was _____ to the local washerwomen of Harborne who used the pool to wash their clothes.

Moor Pool was designed with lots of green space and fresh air to be a '_____.' George Cadbury also designed Bournville in this way!

Moor Pool has hosted lots of festivals over the years, including a 1914 Music Festival in the Hall. There were nearly 200 competitors and Arthur _____ gave out the prizes to the winners.

HIDDEN WORD: _____

